

ALL MADE UP

Inspired by 1950s pottery, Sanderson's new collection includes cut velvets in geometric blocks of colour, stripes and leaf motifs. From £49 per m, 0870 830 0066; sanderson-uk.com

GOING GREEN

These angled green enamelled Maxlume shades date from the 1930s and 40s. £210 each, 01453 756677; trainspotters.co.uk

CHECK OUT SURFACE VIEW'S VINTAGE COLLECTION. THE COMPANY CREATES BESPOKE WALL MURALS, BLINDS, POSTERS AND TILES. THIS IS 'LIP SERVICE', AVAILABLE AS A CANVAS OR MATT PRINT.

From £72 per sq/m, 0118 922 1327; surfaceview.co.uk

THE BOLD AND OPTIMISTIC COLOURS OF KEVIN MCCLOUD'S NEW MID-CENTURY COLOURS WERE PARTLY INSPIRED BY THE FESTIVAL OF BRITAIN.

Race Yellow, £29.50 for 2.5 litres in emulsion, 0845 366 0400; fireearth.com

In with THE OLD

Have a vintage year, say Nicolette Le Pelley and Cheryl Knorr from thehousedirectory.com

SPACE SOLVER

Vintage leather luggage and trunks are great for storage and can double up as a coffee table. For a good selection, try Fine & Vintage. From £200, 07599 530318; fineandvintage.co.uk

BEST FROCK FORWARD

Put on your favourite frock and head down to the Vintage Festival at the Southbank Centre from 29-31 July. It will feature music, fashion, film, art, dance and design from the 1920s to the 1980s, plus an enormous outdoor vintage marketplace. vintagebyhemingway.co.uk

READ UP

Two books with a contemporary spin on vintage have just been published: The Vintage Modern Home by Katherine Sorrell (merrellpublishers.com; £24.95) and Modern Vintage Style by Emily Chalmers (rylandpeters.com; £19.99). Both are packed with ideas for pulling together the look.

